Dear Family of St Maurice at Resurrection,

As we near the end of Summer, vacations over, children back in school, we still find ourselves wrapped in the cloak of this Corona-virus pandemic. I pray that each and every one of you is safe, healthy, and coping well with life as we know it. There is much controversy surrounding this disease entity. However, in the end, we must, first and foremost protect one another and ourselves. So we continue with social distancing, mask wearing, and the power of prayer! However, Archbishop Thomas Wenski has, due to the positive response to the above protocols, allowed us to once again open the Parish churches for regular attendance! I hope to see many more of you attending Mass in person as we go forward!

Life has changed, it's true. But the one constant – we are family! I miss seeing those of you who cannot physically attend the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass each weekend. I am grateful for those who can spend this precious time with the Lord and our family. Either way, remember you are always in my heart and prayers. We will overcome and be stronger, together. Keep the faith! Remember, thanks to the generosity of Ray and Judy Rivard, two Masses are live-streamed on our Face Book and YouTube sites each Sunday.

Although life has changed, much remains the same. The operating costs of running a Parish have not gone away due to Covid-19. I appreciate the support we have been receiving through the envelope system, or via ON-LINE-GIVING. However, your continued support is needed in order for us to meet our monthly expenses. Many parishioners have not been supporting the church as prior to the Covid quarantine. Knowing that personal financial burdens are a reality for many of you, we appreciate what you can do, but ask you to please remember to honor God and continue your support of the parish.

Again, remember you, the family of St. Maurice, are always in my continued prayers. Be safe, be well, and let us know how you are doing. I look forward to being able to spend time face to face with you, my brothers and sisters in Christ as we celebrate the Eucharist together!

Blessings,

Msgr. Jean Pierre
